Property Owners Affected by the Butte Fire May Receive an Exemption from the Annual Fire Prevention Fee

Property owners within the State Responsibility Area (SRA) have received a bill for “The Annual Fire Prevention Fee”. This fee applies to anyone who had a “habitable structure” on their property as of July 1.

Property owners who lost their homes in the Butte Fire may qualify for an exemption from that fee. In order to qualify you must fill out and file a form. For a quick link to the form go to <http://firepreventionfee.org>

For further information feel free to call the Calaveras County Assessor’s Office at (209)7546356
